“ A fantastic first session at the Saturday art club for my nine year old son - the girls in charge were so skilled with the children and made him feel welcome and read him and his needs perfectly. Reassuring to also learn that they are crb checked and they already had experience of the additional needs my son has which is a bonus! Can't wait for next week, thank you x ”

HeART - Arts in Healthcare

There has been growing understanding over the past few years about the impact that arts can have on health and wellbeing which extends further than eliminating boredom.

By supplementing medicine and care, art programmes can engage patients in the arts to promote the prevention of disease and build wellbeing and have shown to have a positive effect on patients with physical health or mental health problems.

CYP Arts aims to promote, share and encourage the use of art and creativity in the healthcare environment. Our artists and practitioners work in partnerships with healthcare settings such as community, hospitals and in the field of health promotion.

We offer the following programmes in arts in health:

Participatory Arts Programmes

Our Participatory arts programmes work with care homes, GP surgeries, hospitals as well as community settings providing opportunities for children and young people to engage with the arts as a tool to improve their wellbeing providing creative outlets for people who are ill - either with physical health issues or mental health issues.

Arts in the Healthcare Environment

Many hospitals have chosen to incorporate artwork into the healthcare environment to improve the experience of patients and staff. Nowadays, most hospitals have art exhibitions and many have artists working to improve wayfinding and clinical areas.

Health & Wellbeing Workshops

Our visual workshops look at topics of health and wellbeing and can be tailored to suit a variety of groups and topics such as sexual health, personal hygiene, safe sex, obesity & body image, drug taking and misuse - legal and illegal and bullying.
